

(d) A daughter, Judy Kidd, unmarried.

all residents of Rockville, Montgomery County, Maryland, as aforesaid.

(g) The children and descendants of a deceased brother, Charles William Kidd, who died on or about the 17th day of August, 1934:

(1) A son, Raymond C. Kidd, whose wife's name is Minnie M. Kidd, residents of Orlando, Florida, as aforesaid.

(2) A son, Charles Newton Kidd, whose wife's name is Irma W. Kidd.

(3) A son, William E. Kidd, whose wife's name is Helen C. Kidd,

all residents of Baltimore, Maryland, as aforesaid,

(4) A daughter, Edith H. Pearl, also known as Edith Kidd Pearl, whose husband's name is Edward R. Pearl, residents of Frederick County, Maryland.

(5) The heirs-at-law of a deceased daughter, Ethel J. Lawson, who died intestate on or about the 30th day of April, 1938, to-wit:

a. A son, John W. Lawson, Jr., whose wife's name is Marian B. Lawson.

b. A daughter, Jennie Lee Ruthvin, whose husband's name is Richard M. Ruthvin.

c. A son, George Clay Lawson, whose wife's name is D. Kay Lawson.

d. A daughter, Margaret Lawson Duvall, divorced, all residents of Frederick County, Maryland, as aforesaid.

e. A daughter, Mary Ann Lawson Hottinger, whose husband's name is Gene F. Hottinger, residents of Montgomery County, Maryland.

(h) The children and descendants of a deceased brother, Claude M. Kidd, who died intestate the 2nd day of August, 1931, leaving surviving as his only heirs-at-law, to-wit:

(1) A son, Claude M. Kidd, whose wife's name is Eileen M. Kidd, residents of Montreal, Canada, as aforesaid.

(2) A daughter, Dorothy Kidd Trepanier, whose husband's name is Lucien E. Trepanier, residents of Québec, Canada, as aforesaid.